

CORPORATE PROFILE

Formed in 2013, Boreas Heritage Consulting Inc. (Boreas) is an independent cultural resource management firm dedicated to providing quality service and professional advice for our clients across Atlantic Canada. We are proud of our reputation for integrity and ethical practice in serving Indigenous stakeholders, government agencies, commercial developers and the private sector. Boreas has an excellent health and safety record and is COR certified by the Canadian Federation of Construction Safety Associations.

Boreas recognizes we work on the ancestral lands of the L'nuk in Mi'kma'ki. We understand the importance of building trust and developing cooperative, mutually beneficial relationships with First Nations across Atlantic Canada. Boreas is committed to honouring First Nations knowledge, wisdom and traditions, and our business model includes a commitment to incorporating the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada "Calls to Action".

WORKING WITH US

Our greatest resource is our team of skilled professionals. Boreas is committed promoting transparent and respectful engagement with First Nations and ensuring our clients comply with relevant heritage management standards. We follow the Code of Conduct and Standards of the Register of Professional Archaeologists.

Boreas actively embraces innovative, cost-saving solutions for our clients. We incorporate emerging technologies into our methods and analysis to deliver practical solutions for project management and stakeholder challenges.
